

Gone fishin'

It was a fine day for fishing the Avon River at last Saturday's annual Optimist Fishing Derby. There was a three-way tie for largest Rainbow Trout caught, at one pound, four ounces, by Ryan Mckee, Thomas McDonald and Jacob Browser. Pictured here is Devon Schinbine (left) and Jared Cossey, who come out every year for the derby. They agreed that there was a lot more fish to catch this year.
